1.1. Statement by Ana Vukšić, Member of the Management Board, Finance Director

I am extremely glad to be able to present the operation results of Span Group for 2025, and the people behind those figures. The past year was an exceptional year and will be remembered as one of the most successful years of Span so far. A record growth of revenue across all segments at the 2-digit level is not random—it resulted from strategic excellence and team work.

As much as 32% of revenue growth in the Software Asset Management and Licensing segment is an outstanding accomplishment and the proof of our strong market presence. This is also supported by the fact that we were awarded Microsoft Partner of the Year 2025 for Croatian, Slovenian and Ukrainian markets. 19% growth in the Infrastructure Services, Cloud & Cyber Security segment shows that there are technical experts and geniuses at Span who do their job exquisitely and highly responsibly. This was one of the most demanding, but also most successful years so far for the Service Center Management and Technical Support team, with the 28% growth of the segment compared to the last year. This combination of the right people and the high level of complexity of work that these people do is exactly what proves Span's internal strength and the ability to go the extra mile. In the Software and Business Solution Development segment, we achieved a 14% growth and we are proud of the successful management of key AI, data, and software projects.

Thanks to all of the above, Span Group achieved EBITDA before one-off items of EUR 13.7 million, i.e. a 38% growth. In 2025, EBITDA before one-off items at Span d.d. doubled compared to 2024, marking an extraordinary operational achievement.

In 2025, Span further reinforced its international presence and the position of one of the leading providers of advanced IT services. Building on the Group's strategy of growth and geographic expansion across Southern, Central and Eastern Europe and Central Asia, we have established a separate strategic pillar within our organisation for international markets to support ongoing and future growth initiatives.

Alongside our core business, in this dynamic year we did not disregard the ESG segment, which is at the heart of our business. At the end of 2025, we presented the new ESG strategy in which new priority areas of action were defined through an integrated approach to environment, social and governance topics, and we will continue to use technology to make a positive impact on the community.

Looking ahead to 2026, we expect technological advancement to continue revolutionising business models and requirements for IT partners, while central importance should be given to ethical and sustainable solutions that are compliant in terms of governance requirements. In the following period, we will continue to expand to new markets, making Span an internationally relevant actor one step at a time. This ambition leads us, but also compels us to stay focused, responsible and to stick to the strategy that we have set for ourselves.

In December 2025, Span's Management Board adopted new ESG strategy representing a significant step in our future development and firmly establishing sustainability as a strategic priority of the Company. The strategy is based on the comprehensive double materiality assessment conducted in 2024. It helped us identify what's really important to Span: where we make the biggest impact, where risks emerge and where opportunities that can turn our technology into social force lie.

1.3.4. Span Cyber Security Arena 2026. Announcement

With the rapid development of technology, the complexity of cyber threats is also increasing, making discussions on high-quality cyber security more relevant than ever.

In its third edition, and with the biggest program so far, Span Cyber Security Arena 2026 continues to gather global experts in this field, and focuses on what truly strengthens our defense against cyber threats through lectures, deep-dive presentations, best practice examples and masterclasses.

Span Cyber Security Arena 2026 will be held in Poreč from May 20 to 22, 2026, at the Valamar Collection Pical Resort 5*.

He is the author of the book "Ctrl+Alt+Chaos: How Teenage Hackers Hijack the Internet", which explores the dark side of teenage hacker culture.

For the third year in a row, excellent expert Paula Januszkiewicz is attending the conference, while Sami Laiho and Joe Slowik are coming to Croatia for the first time. All three are top experts who, in addition to lectures, will also hold masterclasses

Span Cyber Security Arena 2026 points out that compliance with European security policies and legislation is not just an obligation, but also the foundation of competitiveness, trust, and sustainable business development in the digital age.

1.4. People and community

1.4.1. Priority areas and new ESG objectives defined

Results of the double materiality assessment provided us with a clear framework for action and helped us identify topics in which Span can achieve the biggest positive impact, and mitigate key impacts and risks. In our new ESG strategy, we provide an insight into how we used an integrated approach to environment, social and governance topics to define new priority areas of action.

Environment

Our focus is on reducing the GHG scope 1 and 2 emissions, achieving more energy efficient operations, and gradually transitioning to renewable energy sources.

To achieve this, we particularly strive to develop and optimise cloud solutions, enabling our customers to reduce the energy consumption. We also improve efficiency and enable an indirect reduction of their emissions.

Social

We foster equal rights, fair reward system and career development through training, certifications and internal promotion programmes.

Aware of the challenges of working in a dynamic IT environment, we continuously enhance our well-being programmes, take care of the work-life balance and reinforce our talent management and business continuity systems.

Through partnerships with education institutions, work in the area of digital literacy and inclusiveness of community, we aim to contribute to the society in which we operate.

Governance

Ethics, transparency and responsibility are the basis of our business. We are guiding the further strengthening of anti-corruption policies, legal compliance and more sustainable supplier practices.

Cyber security remains one of the key business areas and an important part of our ESG contribution to the community. Through Span Cyber Security Center, we continue building the resilience, sharing knowledge and providing support, in particular to small and medium-sized enterprises that often lack sufficient resources for quality protection.

We also defined 11 key, measurable objectives that will guide the implementation of our ESG priorities, and their summary is shown below:

1.4.2. Organisational Climate Survey: international offices and inclusiveness in focus

We carried out the Organisational Climate Survey of Span Group that covered all the employees, including the colleagues from international offices. Its aim was to get honest feedback from employees on key aspects of the work environment, and to further improve the organisational culture and employee experience.

This year's survey introduced a few important developments, including a new chapter dedicated to inclusiveness, as well as a part of the survey specifically adapted to international offices aimed at better understanding of their perspective and cooperation with the Head Office.

Results of the survey showed a positive trend, whereby overall employee satisfaction increased by 3.61% compared to previous year, confirming the improvement in the development of work environment and the importance of active involvement of employees in the shaping of organisational culture.

The results obtained will act as a basis for further activities and initiatives aimed at the improvement of satisfaction, engagement and well-being of employees in the whole of Span Group.

1.4.3. Participation in conferences and professional events

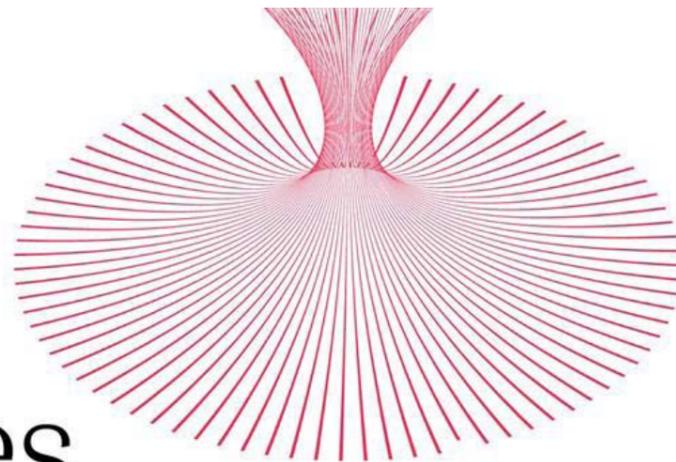

In the fourth quarter of 2025, Span worked thoroughly on enhancing the cooperation with the academic community through a number of initiatives and events of educational nature. We actively participated in activities at the Faculty of Engineering in Rijeka, Faculty of Electrical Engineering and Computing in Zagreb, and the Faculty of Organization and Informatics in Varaždin, and we also successfully continued our long-term cooperation with the Technical High School in Zagreb by giving technical lectures.

In addition to cooperation with educational institutions, Span's experts also participated in various panels and professional events, including Career Days at the University of Applied Sciences in Virovitica, "Workforce Challenges" panel organised by the ESG Academy CEE, and "Volunteering in the Digital Age" panel of the National Volunteering Conference organised by the Croatian Volunteer Development Centre. Moreover, expert lectures were given to students of Software Engineering at Algebra.

By participating in these events, our employees shared their knowledge and experience through lectures, workshops and panel discussions, and at the same time provided support to students by way of awards, career counseling and guidance in terms of future professional opportunities.

Span

1.4.4. Span Heroes

Through Span Heroes programme, and for the sixth year in a row, Span has continued to recognize and honour employees who embody the core values of the Company with their work and behaviour. For Span Heroes 2025, we further updated the employee recognition system by simplifying the approach and putting a stronger focus on values that have a significant and tangible impact on the way we work every day.

This year, the programme focused on promoting the colleagues that live by Span's values – Ahead of Times, Care and Honesty and Transparency – and positively impact the teams and the organisation at the wider level by their example. The recognition system consisted of two categories: Span Hero, dedicated to employees who continuously show care, integrity and innovation within their organisational units, and Cross Team Hero, awarded to individuals who actively connect teams, foster cooperation and knowledge sharing within the organisation as a whole. In the last voting phase, employees selected a total of 21 winners, thereby once again highlighting the importance of the culture of recognition, community and mutual respect within Span.

1.4.5. Employee health and well-being in focus

Span continues to carry out initiatives that promote employee health and well-being in the last quarter as well, with the focus on physical and mental health. On World Mental Health Day (10 October), employees had the opportunity to participate in a mental health and well-being webinar, which was aimed at raising awareness on the importance of mental health, recognising the early signs of stress and providing practical strategies for day-to-day support to resilience and overall satisfaction.

In November and December, Span particularly focused on men's health through Movember initiative, with an emphasis on preventive exams and early diagnosis of testicular and prostate diseases. In that period, 120 employees registered for full body check-ups. Some colleagues did a specialist urological examination, while all the interested employees still could schedule a free examination in the polyclinic of choice. In addition to activities aimed at employees, Span further supported the healthcare system by donating resources to the Urology Clinic of the Clinical Hospital Center "Sestre Milosrdnice", financing the training of doctors and nurses. With these initiatives, Span once again confirmed its commitment to promoting employee health, preventive care and well-being, while fostering positive and engaged work culture at the same time.

1.4.6. Span Christmas Pub Quiz – team spirit and team power

Apart from business activities, the fourth quarter also saw our first Span Christmas Pub Quiz, which gathered more than 180 employees on Span's premises. Participants divided into teams and enjoyed the knowledge quiz that encouraged team and healthy competition in a relaxed, holiday atmosphere.

Span Christmas Pub Quiz proved to be a successful internal initiative that blended together fun, teamwork and holiday spirit, and laid the foundation for similar gatherings in the future.

1.4.7. The First Audio Book Club held

Span joined the unique Croatian audiobook festival AudioLiber 2025 by participating in the audio book club Book&zvook.

Span's book lovers gathered in a relaxed atmosphere where they discussed a previously selected audiobook available on the Book&zvook app. It was an opportunity for these book enthusiasts to share their opinions about the chosen novel – as well as about audiobooks as an alternative way of enjoying literature.

The Book Club will continue quarterly throughout 2026.

1.4.8. People of Span for the community

During 2025, more than 90% of IT equipment which is no longer used at Span was donated to the institutions whose activity contributes to education, youth development and social inclusion. Donated equipment did no longer meet our internal standards, but is still completely functional, so we found a way to extend its lifecycle and help the community. We thereby also actively reduce waste and promote the reuse of equipment, extending its lifecycle in a sustainable way.

Furthermore, Span contributes to positive changes in society by organising already traditional Christmas humanitarian activity which was initiated and carried out by our member of the Management Board Mihaela Trbojević, together with Mali zmaj, an association which helps improve the quality of life of children from vulnerable families. Humanitarian blood donation was also organised, attracting more and more new donors each year.

1.4.9. Voluntary contribution and professional engagement

In cooperation with the Volunteers' Center Zagreb, Span organised another volunteering action. After two years dedicated to the furnishing of nursing homes, this year we focused on the youth – we furnished the living room and hallway of the Trnoružica Nursery School in Zagreb. Through joint work of our employees, we created a more comfortable, warm and stimulating area for children and youth workers, proving that even slight changes can have a great impact on everyday life of the youngest members of the community.

Building on the cooperation with Volunteers' Center Zagreb, we actively participated in the 8th National Employee Volunteering Conference. Sonja Tadić, our ESG and Environmental Protection Team Leader had the opportunity to present Span's volunteering project based on employee skills in cooperation with Kriješnica, an association that provides support to children and families facing malignant diseases. In this project, our colleagues made use of their expert knowledge to help the association optimise its day-to-day processes, and to enable them to devote more time to what's really important – their beneficiaries.

Also, at the panel during “Volunteering in the Digital Age” national conference, Petra Cigoj Debijadi, our Organisational Development Specialist, talked to experts in different fields about how business sector and technology can support quality and sustainable volunteer programmes and active engagement of citizens.

Through initiatives such as volunteer activities based on professional skills, cooperation with educational institutions and raising awareness on cyber security, Span continues to promote responsible use of technology and make a significant social impact.

1.4.10. Cooperation with the Croatian Business Council for Sustainable Development (HRPSOR)

Span continues its active cooperation with the Croatian Business Council for Sustainable Development by participating of the ESG Department at the 17th Sustainable Development Conference, an event gathering business and public sector leaders, experts, decision-makers and academic community representatives to debate key topics and challenges in the area of sustainable development.

Also, employees of the ESG, Legal, and HR departments participated in HRPSOR’s professional workshop on human rights in business environment. The programme included legislation, examples of the most serious human rights violation, and interactive exercises that helped colleagues understand practical challenges the companies may face with.

In the second part of the workshop, the focus was on children’s rights and their importance in responsible business. Such trainings help us better understand how technologies and business processes can support higher standards of protection of human rights and ensure a sustainable and ethical company development.

1.4.11. Exchange of experience on sustainable practices

Participating in panels dedicated to sustainable practices helps us share experiences with other organisations, better understand the regulatory requirements, and contributes to the dialogue that promotes a more transparent and responsible business environment. Such approach was further reinforced by participating in panels that covered the key topics in the area of sustainable development.

At the workshop on understanding the key requirements and practices related to reporting in accordance with ESRS standards, Deloitte brought together participants from various industries. Sonja Tadić, our ESG Team Leader, had the opportunity to share her practical experience, challenges and lessons learned in the implementation of European Sustainability Reporting Standards.

Moreover, Ana Vukšić, Member of the Management Board, participated in an ESG networking event organised by the Raiffeisen Bank, and in the ESG Conference “Green Croatia – Sustainability and Corporate Governance” organised by the Croatian News Agency (HINA). Both events gathered experts from various sectors, with a view to share knowledge, experience and good practices in the implementation of ESG principles in business processes.

1.4.12. Cooperation with URI Soča

At Span, socially responsible business means expanding our presence to areas that connect us in a broader sense. Span Slovenia has recognized this as well and has been connected for years with URI Soča – the University Rehabilitation Institute of the Republic of Slovenia, with special attention given to supporting the hospital’s primary school children. Span Slovenia provides assistance in procuring school supplies, organizing cooking workshops, joint celebrations, and summer activities – from summer in Planica to diving with the support of professional divers. These are just some of the areas where personal commitment from employees was needed, and children were given experiences that would be unattainable without physical and material support.
